Understanding Christian Stewardship

The parable of the Rich man and Lazarus (Luke 16:19-31) tells us about the reality of heaven and hell. This parable has been misunderstood as advocating a reversal of roles in which if one is living a good life on earth, then they will live a bad life after death. The parable does not mean to teach that the rich will go to hades, after all, Abraham was rich in his earthly lifetime. Jesus tells the parable to help us understand what scriptures teaches about wealth. The context of the parable relates to the stewardship of God-given resources (Luke 16:9-13). That those who have not been faithful in handling the gifts of God (worldly wealth) should not expect anyone to trust them with true riches in heaven (Luke 16:11). The rich man is depicted as indifferent to the social conditions of his community. Christian charity and stewardship enjoin us not to overlook the hardships of the poor. The parable depicts that there is only one life to be lived and one's life must be guided by the scriptures what (Moses and the Prophets and the Gospels teach about wealth).

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established..." Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

The Canadian government proclaimed September 30th as a new national statutory holiday, a National day for Truth and Reconciliation to honour survivors, their families, and communities. The Catholic Church has a significant role and responsibility for Truth and Reconciliation in Canada.

With the recent visit of Pope Francis on his Penitential Pilgrimage to Canada, this day gives us an opportunity to reflect on the history of residential schools, and grow in our understanding towards a commitment to true healing and reconciliation. The Regina event will be on September 30, 2022 – 3:00 PM – 5:30 PM at Holy Rosary Cathedral; see the calendar event for full details at <https://archregina.sk.ca/calendar/indigenous-relations/2022-09-30/national-day-truth-and-reconciliation>. You can also find more information on our website <https://archregina.sk.ca/indigenous-relations>.
