ASK FATHER JAMES:

Jesus offers Zacchaeus a way out – Jesus can do same for you

Luke 19:1-10 is always an interesting read. In this text, Zacchaeus encounters Jesus when Jesus asked him to come down from on top of a tree. He heard that Jesus was coming through town (Jericho) and is determined to see him, so he ran ahead and climbed on a tree. Zacchaeus was hated by the people because as a chief tax collector, they see him as a crook and a traitor, who works as a spy for the Roman oppressors. And Zacchaeus was all those negative attributes. His name is Zacchaeus, an abbreviation of Zechariah, meaning "the righteous one" -- a big name to live up to. He knew he had wealth, but not spiritual health. Thus, he wanted to see Jesus desperately. The text tells us that he climbed a tree because he was of short in stature; metaphorically, in other words, Zacchaeus did not have much character. He was held in low esteem. But grace will always work it out—albeit harsh grace. By God's grace, Zacchaeus tumbles down from the tree; he repents, confronts his small stature and Jesus happily welcomes him into God's grace - "Today salvation (soteria) has come to this house," Jesus said to him.

Do you have a faith question? Email Father James: frjames@sasktel.net

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" Luke 19:8

We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?

Please enter the names of loved ones that have passed in the "Book of Life". We will pray for the repose of their souls at our All Souls Mass, November 2 at 5PM.

There will be a 100 days memorial Mass for Father Peter Nguyen at 5 PM, November 6th at Holy Trinity Parish.

Scripture Study on coming Sunday Readings are Mondays at 10:00 a.m. You may attend in person at 1309 Dover Ave or by telephone conference.

Contact Anita 306-543-0421 if you wish to attend by phone and she will give you the number to connect.

This is beneficial to readers and all who wish to prepare for the readings.

Reflection

Today's first reading reminds us of the patient love of God. He created the universe, and it is like a dew drop in a field, but with great love, correction is given, and relationship is fostered. The universe is a huge place and knowing that God is as close to us as our own heart is something amazing to ponder and encounter. That encounter continues into the Gospel. Zacchaeus is the tiny tax collector who wants to catch a glimpse of Jesus, and when Jesus asks to stay at his house, it is a surprise. To be a tax collector was to be an outcast in Jewish society: it reminded them of the Roman oppressors, and it happened that many tax collectors were dishonest, exploiting many people. So, when Zacchaeus pledges to make amends to the poor and any he extorted, it is clear that his faith in Christ changed his life. The Annual Appeal works to support encounters like the one between Jesus and Zacchaeus, where we realize that Christ loves us deeply, changing our lives forever.
