ASK FATHER JAMES:

The Splendour of Christ the King

The kingship of Christ has been a significant historical way of understanding Christ. Jesus Christ is the Son of God – anointed King, Prophet, and Priest. We celebrate this feast to acknowledge him as such. We are sons and daughters of God and heirs to God's kingdom. As baptized Christians, we too are anointed. We belong to his kingdom. Anointed people spiritually symbolize Christ. Jesus Christ came into the world to save us and to restore us to our original status which Adam and Eve lost. We need to reclaim our lost status. Only Jesus Christ can help us reclaim our rightful place. In today's gospel reading (Luke 23:35-43), the thief on his right hand realized this, he said to Jesus: Remember me when you come into your Kingdom." We too can learn from the repentant thief on the cross and hear those words from Jesus: "Today, you will be with me in paradise."

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

34th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

"...giving thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light."

Colossians 1:12

God wants us to be happy! Instead of looking at the Ten Commandments as being restrictive and telling us what we can't do, look at them as guides for living a joy-filled and peaceful life. Most of our problems arise when we put our own needs first or we spend most of our time trying to acquire more stuff. Instead, try putting God first in all things. We were made for God. Open your heart and let Him in!

ARCHDIOCESE OF Regina

Regina Little Theatre Presents: The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe

Regina Little Theatre is staging a production of "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe" from Nov. 30 through Dec. 3 at the Regina Performing Arts Centre. The play is an adaptation of part of the Narnia Chronicles by C.S. Lewis, which, as you may know, is strongly rooted in the Christian tradition. The play is suitable for all ages, and more than half the cast is composed of children and teenagers. To further encourage family participation, our Saturday (Dec. 3) matinee features a $10 admission for children 12 years and younger.

Charismatic Prayer Meeting

Tuesdays at 10:00 am at Our Lady of Peace Parish. For more information contact Michael at: 306-201-2305 or Denise at: 306-726-5865.

Scripture Study on coming Sunday Readings are Mondays at 10:00 a.m. You may attend in person at 1309 Dover Ave or by telephone conference.

Contact Anita 306-543-0421 if you wish to attend by phone and she will give you the number to connect.

This is beneficial to readers and all who wish to prepare for the readings.

Reflection

Today is the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. The readings focus on the reality that gift, the inheritance, that Christ the King gives us is the gift of eternal life.

The first and second readings explore this in the anointing of King David and Saint Paul's account of the divinity of Christ. Life itself was made through Christ, and it is Christ who reconciles the world back to God. The earthly rulers sneered at Christ on the Cross, not realizing that this was the ultimate act of love and devotion to God. When the criminal asks for eternal life, Jesus says, "today you will be with me in Paradise." This shows us that our inheritance is secure, since only the King of the Universe could make such a promise.

The Church works to promote social justice in the world. In keeping government accountable by enacting just legislations, to promoting equity and solidarity among all people, your support to the Annual Appeal directly supports the office of Social Justice in the ministry of promoting the reality of Christ the King. Please give generously to ensure this work continues.
