Stewardship

"Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous." (1 Corinthians 13:4)

Do you get jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these things. Pray for more humility. Pray to become less "self-centered" and become more "God-centered".

ASK, FATHER JAMES:

How can I prayerfully persevere in the face of a life threatening Illness and medical crisis?

Prayer is the key to perseverance for any Christian in the face of life challenges and nothing should impede the realization of this; not even weakness, spiritual dryness, defeat and even prayerlessness. Prayer is the most ancient, most universal, and most intensive religious instinct in the face of trials. Since antiquity, people have been known to pray more during Illness. For example, the prayer lifestyle of Moses and Daniel in the Old Testament proves the efficacy of prayer. Moses prayed for his sister Miriam to be cured (Numbers 12:11-13) and Daniel prayed that God closes the lion's jaw in the den (Daniel 6:4-27).The Scripture records that when he prayed, Daniel "set his face toward the LORD to make request by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth and ashes" (Daniel 9:3).

And in the spirit of the New Testament, care of the sick has always been an integral part of the Catholic church's mission. God works with praying Christians and makes Himself known to them in the face of crises. In the Letter of St. James, we read; "Is any among you sick? Let him call for the presbyters of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up" (James. 5:14, 15). The holy touch with oil is a touch from Christ and the prayer of a caring community and the sacrament awakens the sick to the healing power of God in all aspects of daily living.

Adopting a biblical prayer makes a Christian prayer lifestyle effective. No doubt, the ability to pray may be lost and then found again in moments of crisis especially when attempting to comprehend the incomprehensible. Suffering is real and is part of life but is not a punishment from God. Jesus prayed to the Father from on top of the Cross (Matthew 27:46; Mark 15:34). God's primary purpose is in answering prayers. He reveals Himself as the true God, Redeemer and as our Saviour when we call upon him. We are to pray always because Jesus said most assuredly; "I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name, He will give you" (John 16:23).

Please email/send your faith questions to Fr. James and he will answer them in our Sunday Bulletins
