ASK FATHER JAMES:

Be 'salt' and 'light'

This is the mandate of our Lord Jesus Christ to us in Matthew 5:13-16. He gave this mandate right after teaching the principles of living the beatitudes as disciples and the church. Now, what does Jesus mean by; "Be salt and light?" Jesus means that as disciples, we should not be afraid to penetrate the world around us even though we live in a world that was faced with various forms of decay and darkness. The tendency in us is to want to hold back and not dissolve into the broth or the darkness that needs some sweetness and illumination. By this mandate, Jesus challenges you and me to be infectious as the salt is to the taste buds of the world and be illuminating as light is to darkness. Like salt and light, our spirituality should permeate the entire person and let God be praised by our faith and good works.

We can come to the point where we have given up our standards and now stand for nothing. If we no longer stand boldly and faithfully for Christ and Christian values, we become worthless to him. Less than worthless. Jesus says: Let your light shine!

Do you have a faith question? Email Father James: frjames@sasktel.net

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." Matthew 5:16

The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people and it is contagious! Good works encourages more good works. Generosity is a by-product of a grateful lifestyle. The more we recognize God's gifts, the more we want to share them. Good stewards recognize that God is working through them and they don't put themselves above the people they have been called to help.

Scripture Study Mondays at 10 am. Attend in person at 1309 Dover Ave or by telephone conference. Contact Anita 543-0421 for more information.

Since then, 591 people have been commissioned through the program, but, unfortunately, we do not have contact information for everybody. If you are interested in being part of the Lay Formation Alumni, send your contact information to Aseret Ruiz at: Email: Aseret.ruizp@outlook.com or Cell: 201-6317
