ASK FATHER JAMES:

Corpus Christi: Jesus Calls us to be a Eucharistic People

In today's gospel reading, (Luke 9:16a) Jesus: "Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke them...." This foreshadows what Jesus did at the Last Supper. "Corpus Christi: The Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ" is all about what we Catholic Church believe about this Sacrament. At the Last Supper, when He had taken some bread and given thanks, He broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is My body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of Me." And in the same way He took the cup after they had eaten, saying, "This cup which is poured out for you is the new covenant in My blood." Our usage of the word "Eucharist" describes what Jesus did: He lifts his eyes to heaven and "gave thanks." The word comes from the Greek word for thanksgiving is eucharisteo. At every Mass, we are called to be a eucharistic church; a church that continually gives thanks. Just as Jesus looks up to heaven and gives thanks, at Mass, the gaze of the Church is constantly turned to her Lord, present in the Sacrament of the Altar, in which she discovers the full manifestation of his boundless love.

Body and Blood of Christ

"They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." (Luke 9:17)

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when you share what you have, even if it doesn't seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! Each of us has a role in God's plan; you just need to place your trust in the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God. You may be the answer to someone else's prayer.

ARCHDIOCESE OF The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program

Regina

Share the Joy of the Gospel!

"I'm more conscious that God is around me all the time. To know that He is everywhere with every person has helped me to step out of my comfort zone. Everyone has their little quirks and I see those as gifts or their own personal freedom of being who they are." - Beckey Franke, St. John the Baptist Parish, Estevan

One weekend a month from October to June, Catholics just like you are gathering at Campion College in Regina as they become more deeply aware of God's personal love and activity in their lives. Why not make their story, your story?

We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information on how to register or our COVID-19 health and safety protocols, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 ext 6724 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

TF#301: Dating Well with Dr. Mario Sacasa - Part 1

Join the discussion with Dr. Mario Sacasa from the Always Hope Podcast as we discuss his new online course 'Dating Well'. We'll look at fostering a healthy approach to dating and relationships and the particular challenges faced by discerning couples in our modern world.

Show Snippet: If we fall into an overly pious way of dating or concept of dating, then we can think, "Well, as long as we agree that Jesus Christ is the Lord, that the Catholic Church is the one true Church, that we pray together, and that's all we need"...but you know your relationship is going to be built on so much more than just going to Mass together."
