MONEY MATTERS AND JESUS

In our Gospel for this weekend, Luke 12:13-21, Jesus responded to a request for financial advice from a person in the crowd saying: "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." Jesus then uses the occasion to teach about the perils of wealth through the parable of the rich man who made provision for his future by his material wealth but neglected his spiritual state. Him dying unexpectedly that very night and incurring God's judgment. Jesus concludes, "So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God." Life is itself a gift from God. God and mammon (money/wealth) represent two antithetical wellsprings that pull our intentions and actions in different directions. The conclusion to be drawn from the lesson Jesus was teaching is the last verse which says, "so it is with those who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich toward God." The man was called a "fool" because he failed in the account of "giving to God." He only plans to enjoy his possessions despite the uncertainty of the future and the inevitability of his own death.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." -Luke 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more "God-centered"

Made for Greatness 'Fearless' A Catholic Men's Event

At Made for Greatness we've served Saskatchewan's Catholic men since 2017. This year, inspired by the story of St. Peter walking on water, we are excited to bring you our 5th annual men's event: Fearless. Rising out of the COVID restrictions, many of us are still bruised. The past couple years have been challenging for all of us and the future seems almost insurmountable. A storm is brewing; we can see it rise globally, within in our communities, and even among our families. Resonating more than the uncertainty of what's to come is the voice of Jesus, calling me and you to walk with him on the water. Like Peter, Jesus calls us to Fearlessly move forward.

The Parish office will be closed Monday, August 1st for Saskatchewan Day!

We are all aware Pope Francis is in Canada this week to visit survivors of Indigenous residential schools.

This is potentially a highly triggering event for those who have been sexually abused by clergy. We recognize that survivors of Indigenous residential school abuse will also be impacted by the visit.

Therefore the archdiocese is asking each parish to be keenly aware of the potential need for resources for victims of clergy sexual abuse.

If you are in need of support of any kind including simply the answer to troubling questions you might have, please know that you can speak with your parish priest or contact resource persons put in place by the archdiocese at this particularly fragile time.

Henri Nouwen said: Nobody escapes being wounded. We are all wounded people, whether physically, emotionally, mentally, or spiritually. The main question is not, 'How can we hide our wounds?' so we don't have to be embarrassed, but 'How can we put our woundedness in the service of others?'

Please Join us for this WALKING WITH OTHERS event Sunday, September 11th, 2022 from 1:00 pm – 5:00 pm via Zoom.
