ASK FATHER JAMES:

"I am the gate for the sheep."

The Gospel text for this Sunday (John 10:1-11) contains two descriptions of Jesus:

"I am the gate for the sheep" (vs 7) and

"I am the good shepherd." (Vs. 11).

These two roles are related in that they both lead the sheep to life. The good shepherd gate leads the sheep through the gate of green pasture -salvation. A gate is not only a means for access but also of security. Jesus the good shepherd opens the gate for us to come to safety.

The good shepherd knows that the sheep live in precarious times and are being attacked by wolves ravenously. Remember what Jesus said in Matthew 10:16: "you are like sheep among wolves." Thus, Jesus said that the good shepherd welcomes the sheep into the pen through the gate which can then when closed shuts out the flock from any predators.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

"And Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ...'" Acts 2:38 The word "repent" means to turn from sin - to change our thoughts, words and actions. Change that is permanent comes from within - a transformation or conversion of heart. This requires prayer, discipline and perseverance. Change is hard. The first step is recognizing that we are broken and that we need God's help. The good news - we are not alone in our journey. Ask Jesus daily for guidance and patiently listen for his response.

Scripture Study Mondays at 10 am. Attend in person at 1309 Dover Ave or by telephone conference. Contact Anita at 543-0421 for more information.
