Week of Prayer for Christian Unity January 19-26, 2020

The 2020 theme, "They showed us unusual kindness" (Acts 28:2), remembers the historic shipwreck of St. Paul on the island of Malta and calls us to a greater generosity to those in need.

You are invited to join in prayer with other Christians on: January 26, 3:00 p.m. at All Saints Anglican Church, 142 Massey Road, Regina. Our preacher will be Pastor Joel Russell MacLean (First Baptist, Regina). All are welcome.

As an island nation, boats are an important part of Maltese life. The Scripture reading in this service describes a perilous sea voyage by the Apostle Paul. A boat is also symbolic of the sometimes tempestuous journey Christians make together towards unity.

We encourage you to observe this Week of Prayer keeping a specific focus on Christ's prayer "that all may be one... so that the world may believe" (John 17:21). Whether we gather together in joint services or in our own churches, in prayer groups or individually, let our prayer be for the unity that Christ wills, as Christ wills. Taizé Prayer Service

Friday, January 17th at 7:00 p.m.

Blessed Sacrament Church, 2049 Scarth St.

Come join us for candlelight services of meditative music and quiet reflection as we place our joys and concerns before the Lord. The Taizé prayer service is from an ecumenical community founded in Taizé, France in 1940. A Taizé service provides a form of prayer that was much admired by St John Paul II for its simplicity and focus on Christ. At a Taizé service we pray as we sing, as we reflect on the Scripture reading, as we sit in silence, and as we offer our prayers to Christ.

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb..." (Isaiah 49:5)

God has given each of us different gifts. In order for God's plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do, and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan! So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don't let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and generously share them with others.

BULLETIN BOARD

Night with the Persecuted Church

What would you do if it was illegal to go to church? Or to own a Bible? What would life be like if following Jesus meant you were kicked out of your home, family or community? This is a reality for millions of persecuted Christians around the world.

You are invited to join us for this free event – A Night with the Persecuted Church. Wed., Feb. 5 at 7:00 p.m. at Argyle Road Baptist Church, 3510 Argyle Road, Regina. This event is organized by Open Doors (www.opendoorsca.org), and is an opportunity to learn about our persecuted family around the world. People will be challenged to follow the examples of faith lived by the persecuted church and to follow Jesus no matter the cost. They will also have the opportunity to connect with our persecuted family through letter writing and prayer. There will be desserts and coffee too!

All are welcome. Please RSVP at www.persecutedchurch.ca

40th Annual Nash Lecture: The Feminist Revolution in Religion

Wed., Feb. 5, 2020 at 7:30 pm at Campion College Auditorium
As we enter a new decade, religion and social politics are deeply intertwined and questions regarding equity in the Church continue to swirl. The new feminist revolution seeks creative ways to highlight voices often silenced, raise awareness of intersectionality, and shift the larger conversation while promoting forward thinking transformation. In this talk, Dr. Gina Messina will discuss the status of the Church and its influence on socio-political dialogue, the impact of having a progressive pope who has graced the cover of Rolling Stone Magazine, and a new understanding of revolution within the feminist religious movement that claims faith as its foundation to fuel positive social change within Church and society.

Dr. Messina is an American scholar and Catholic theologian with a focus on the intersection of gender, religion, and politics. She is an Associate Professor of Religious Studies at Ursuline College, a prolific author and editor, and a sought after speaker. She has appeared on MSNBC, NPR, at the United Nations' Commission on the Status of Women, and as a TEDx speaker.
