Welcome to Our Lady of Peace Parish!

We welcome all new parishioners to our parish community. We are happy to assist you at our Information Desk before or after Mass. Here you can register at our parish, notify us of change of address, sign up for collection envelopes, get a Mass Card, notify the office of someone in the parish who needs prayers or a need that you may have. Someone will be at this table at least 15 minutes prior to Mass, and after as well.

ANointing of the Sick:

Call the Parish Office if you need anointing at home or in the hospital.

Check bulletin for upcoming anointing schedules.

Baptism:

Next Baptism class will be in November please call the office for information.

MARRIAGE: Please contact the pastor at least six months prior to the wedding date to begin the necessary preparations.

RCIA/RCIC: - Call the Parish Office to Register.

Stewardship: "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." - Matthew 23:12 Jesus gave His life to serve, not to be served. Putting other's needs before our own needs is a sign of becoming a mature disciple, of following Jesus' example. Humility is really a sign of a strength. By putting other's needs first we declare to the world that we are putting our complete trust in God. When we align our thoughts and actions with God's plan for us, the result is Joy and Peace.

Ask Fr. James

What do we Catholics believe differently about the Holy Eucharist?

The debate among leading Protestant, Orthodox and Roman Catholic scholars has always been whether the Eucharist is a sacrament of Christ's real presence ("this is my body") or just a memorial of his death and resurrection ("do this in remembrance of me"). We Catholics believe both while most of the other Christians faith traditions believe the latter. The Catholic argument is that it is not either/or. "Memorial" and "real presence" go hand in hand. By real presence is meant that at every Mass, Jesus Christ is substantially present on the altar ("this is my body") and we come to meet him there. Real Presence is the reason we kneel during the consecration because, truly aware of the holiness and divinity of the sacrament we approach it with great reverence and holiness.

The Eucharist as "memorial" is not to be understood as a pleasant recollection of something that happened "back then" but as a way of making the reality of God's saving act in Christ newly present at each Mass we celebrate. The memorial we celebrate is Christ who gave himself on the cross for the sake of the world and whose presence we encounter in the Eucharist. In the Eucharist we celebrate the self-giving of Christ and we share in the life God has offered us through him. This biblical idea of the Eucharist is celebrated by God's people in every liturgy and is present in this anamnesis (memorial), granting us communion with himself.

Our third understanding of the Eucharist is 'Eucharist as communion.' It means that we are in Holy Communion with Jesus and with one another at Mass. At the table of the Lord we experience the 'vertical' and "horizontal" dimensions of Communion. St Paul calls it the two-fold dimensional - (a) participation in (fellowship or communion with) Christ (vertical), and (b) mutual participation in (fellowship or communion with) the community of believers (horizontal).

Such fellowship with Christ, says St. Paul, is experienced most directly in the sacramental life of the church, and especially in the Eucharist. "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a sharing (communion, participation, koinonia) in the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ?" (1 Cor. 10:16). This understanding of Holy Communion calls us not only to a sharing in the Body and Blood of Christ but also to sharing in one another's suffering (Col. 1:24) and tribulations (Phil. 4:14), a sharing in times of consolation (2 Cor. 1:7), an offering of active assistance in times of need (2 Cor. 8 and 9), a community of mutual service (1 Pet. 4:10) and of loving participation in the life of others (Acts 2:42-47).

At every Mass, we encounter Jesus and the Eucharistic communion with Christ nourishes the life of the Church and at the same time nourishes the communion within the body of Christ which is the Church. The sharing of one bread and the common cup demonstrates and effects the oneness of the sharers with Christ and with their fellow sharers. To be united with Christ in this meal is to be united with the members of his body. Thus the Eucharistic celebration demands reconciliation and sharing among all those regarded as brothers and sisters in the one family of God.

You may email/send your faith questions to Fr. James and he will answer them in our Sunday Bulletins.

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

Archbishop's Appeal Bulletin Reflection:

In addition to donation cards, the Archdiocese of Regina has also provided parishioners with a brochure that contains a list of the ministries and organizations that are supported through your gifts to the Archbishop's Appeal. You are invited to take time this week to select a few of those organizations and remember them in your personal prayers. Reflect on the men, women and young people with nothing but joy and hope in their hearts helping run these programs and those who are served by their efforts. Please consider how you might honor their efforts and their needs through your support of the Archbishop's Appeal.

Thinking Faith! TF58: Thinking about Baptism Part 1

Continuing their series on sacramental preparations, Eric and Bret take time this week to discuss some of the basic theology underlying the sacrament of baptism. Specifically, they'll discuss the theme of death and resurrection - what we call the 'Pascal Mystery'. We'll discuss how Christ's dying and rising serves to 'unlock' themes of death and resurrection in the Old Testament and can help us to understand just what we are entering into when we are baptized and when we prepare to baptize our children. A great episode for Catechists and to share with parents.
