Stewardship

"I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me." (Luke 22:34)

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about Jesus or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet not to cause a disturbance? Or, do you remain quiet because you believe people will think negatively about you? Pray for the courage to speak up and enter into a respectful dialogue when the opportunity arises.

Please Pray For:

Terry Bedard, Judith Lewis, Cathy Chukwuma,
Izolda Abram, Rose Frolic
Marion Danyliw & Raymond Vermette

ASK FATHER JAMES:

Why Does the Passion Narrative include the readings on the Crucifixion?

The events told in the Passion narratives are the foundation of the Christian faith. They tell how Jesus, by his passion, death, burial and resurrection moved us from the Old Testament ways to the New Testament way. In the Old Testament, the blood of animal sacrifice began with the animal sacrifices of Abraham after the covenant with God was thought to take away sin. He was even ready to sacrifice his son, Isaac, hoping that his blood will take away sins, but with Jesus entering Jerusalem on Palm Sunday to inaugurate the New Covenant - The Passion, Death on the Cross and Resurrection and Ascension of Jesus Christ, it would be confirmed that only the blood of Christ, with no blemish will take away sin.

They arrested and crucified Jesus because he claims to be the fulfilment of the promise made in the Old Testament that the Messiah will come to save the world. This was the question asked between the high priest and Jesus in Mark 14:61-62: "Are You the Christ?" But Jesus remained silent and gave no answer. Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?” “I am,” said Jesus. “And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven.” The four Gospels and three passages in the Acts of the Apostles, and the First Letter to Timothy (6:11-16) tells the story of Jesus' response to this question before Pontius Pilate.

The Passion Narrative is read because it tells the whole story. The Blood of Jesus that flowed from on top of the cross at his crucifixion will save the world and put an end to the blood of animals that the people sacrificed daily in the temple, hoping it could take away sins. The central message in the passion narrative of the Gospels is that Jesus’ crucifixion turns out to be the confirmation that he is the messiah and the king of the universe. This realization was the conversion point for Judas the betrayer. He will realize this, and said to the elders of the people and the chief priests, “I have sinned; I have delivered up innocent blood.” Judas throws the blood money into the temple and the priests take the blood money and buy with it a burial ground outside the city and “that field was called ‘Field of Blood’” and the whole people said, “His blood be upon us and upon our children” (Matthew 27:4-10).

If you have any faith questions please email them to Father James at: frjowolagba@gmail.com
