ASK FATHER JAMES:

“Give us this day our daily bread” Luke 11:3

This weekend's Gospel text is about the necessity of prayer in the life of a Christian disciple. Jesus teaches us how to pray the “Our Father prayer.” So rightly called the Lord's Prayer because Christ himself gave it to us (Luke 11:1-13). God educates us through prayer to look towards him and so learn what to pray for. One of the requests we make in that prayer is “Give us this day our daily bread.” This can be understood as a request for material and spiritual food. It is an expression of our ongoing dependence on God, asking for provision for the material and spiritual food we need to survive this life's exigencies. The simplicity of the Lord's Prayer is based on the assurance that the Lord hears our requests, knows our needs, and will respond in a way that accords with the goodness of God's character. The catechism of the catholic Church admonishes us that this request for daily bread can be generally reduced only to mean praying for our basic daily necessities. (CCC 2837). The request for “Our daily bread” goes far above our basic needs for sustenance and invokes our supernatural needs. St. Jerome translated the Bible in the 4th century from the original Latin, Hebrew and Greek texts to form the Latin Vulgate Bible. He translated the request as “supersubstantial bread,” and explains that this is a request for a bread that is above all substances and surpasses all creatures.” This understanding has Eucharistic overtones, as the Catechism states, “the Eucharist is already the foretaste of the kingdom to come.” (CCC 2837).

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

*“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find;
knock and the door will be opened to you.”
Luke 11:9*

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. The truth is that many of us need very little. However, we usually want so much more! Stewardship is simply being grateful for all that we are and all that we have been given, and generously sharing all of our God-given gifts with others. Generosity is a gift that opens doors to new relationships with others and with God.

ARCHDIOCESE OF

Regina

The Archdiocese Of Regina Lay Formation Program

"I'd love to take the course, but I want to wait until; my kids are grown, I can slow down at work, I'm retired..."

The sad truth is, nearly 75% of young people, even those raised in religious homes, will leave the Church by the time they are 25 - well before many of us retire! Some of the most common reasons given for leaving one's faith behind include; perceived conflicts between faith and science, Christians behaving badly, a lack of evidence for the existence of God and difficulties with some of the Church's teachings. Our sons and daughters need mentors who are "well-trained and animated by a sincere faith. Whose life has been touched by the personal and merciful love of Jesus Christ" (Pope Francis).

We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information on how to register or our COVID-19 health and safety protocols, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 ext 6724 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

Made for Greatness 'Fearless' A Catholic Men's Event

At Made for Greatness we've served Saskatchewan's Catholic men since 2017. This year, inspired by the story of St. Peter walking on water, we are excited to bring you our 5th annual men's event: Fearless. Rising out of the COVID restrictions, many of us are still bruised. The past couple years have been challenging for all of us and the future seems almost insurmountable. A storm is brewing; we can see it rise globally, within in our communities, and even among our families. Resonating more than the uncertainty of what's to come is the voice of Jesus, calling me and you to walk with him on the water. Like Peter, Jesus calls us to Fearlessly move forward.

Keynote Speaker: from the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal

When: September 9th and 10th, 2022

Where: Christ the King Parish, 3239 Garnet St. Regina
