ASK FATHER JAMES:

Martha Opens her Home to Jesus: But Jesus is the Host (Luke 10:38)

Today's Gospel tells a story about two sisters, Martha and Mary, holy women who loved Jesus and opened their home to welcome Jesus. The text says: "As Jesus and his disciples were on their way, he came to a village where a woman named Martha opened her home to him." (Luke 10:38). And then Martha was trying to play the host. Jesus reminds Martha, that she is distracted from focusing on the "host." She was so distracted that she was not able to take advantage of Christ's presence in her home. Mary on the other hand, "sat at the feet of Jesus' feet." Jesus's response to Martha with a particular focus on the phrases "one thing is necessary" and "Mary has chosen the best part," was referring to Martha's misplaced attention. At every Mass, Christ is present, but we can easily miss his presence by several distractions. Jesus is the host is the consecrated bread of the Eucharist; from the Latin root, 'hostia', meaning a sacrificial victim. Martha was trying to play the host and as a consequence, limiting her own spiritual blessing from the hostia. Jesus says that Mary "has chosen the better part" by listening to divine presence and enjoying the spiritual benefit. Mary is simply doing what all Christians should be doing, and Jesus is trying to encourage Martha to do likewise. However, Jesus is not advocating idleness. That 'Mary sat at the feet of Jesus,' does he mean that she did nothing else throughout her whole life.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"...I am a minister in accordance with God's stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God."

- Colossians 1:25

We are all called to evangelize – to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel. Our faith is more attractive to others by our actions than by our words alone. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith through our actions and words, especially with those closest to us, like our family, friends and neighbors. Pray for the courage to joyfully express your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

ARCHDIOCESE OF

Regina

The Archdiocese Of Regina Lay Formation Program

"I'd love to take the course, but I want to wait until; my kids are grown, I can slow down at work, I'm retired..."

The sad truth is, nearly 75% of young people, even those raised in religious homes, will leave the Church by the time they are 25 - well before many of us retire! Some of the most common reasons given for leaving one's faith behind include; perceived conflicts between faith and science, Christians behaving badly, a lack of evidence for the existence of God and difficulties with some of the Church's teachings. Our sons and daughters need mentors who are "well-trained and animated by a sincere faith. Whose life has been touched by the personal and merciful love of Jesus Christ" (Pope Francis).

We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information on how to register or our COVID-19 health and safety protocols, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 ext 6724 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

Made for Greatness 'Fearless' A Catholic Men's Event

At Made for Greatness we've served Saskatchewan's Catholic men since 2017. This year, inspired by the story of St. Peter walking on water, we are excited to bring you our 5th annual men's event: Fearless. Rising out of the COVID restrictions, many of us are still bruised. The past couple years have been challenging for all of us and the future seems almost insurmountable. A storm is brewing; we can see it rise globally, within in our communities, and even among our families. Resonating more than the uncertainty of what's to come is the voice of Jesus, calling me and you to walk with him on the water. Like Peter, Jesus calls us to Fearlessly move forward.

Keynote Speaker: from the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal
