ASK FATHER JAMES:

Foundations of our Understanding of the Trinity

Trinity Sunday is a feast held on the Sunday after Pentecost Sunday praying for the ever-continuous blessing of the Trinity, the threefold nature of God. Although the actual word Trinity is not in the Bible, the Greek word Trias or the Latin Trinitas or "Trinity" is explained in the Catechism of the Catholic Church thus: "The Trinity is One. We do not confess three Gods, but one God in three persons. ... The divine Persons do not share the one divinity among themselves but each of them is God, whole and entire." (CCC. #253). At the Ascension, Jesus gave the baptismal formula, when he directed his disciples to baptize in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. By this initiation rite, Christ inaugurates and endorses the doctrine of the Trinity in his Church. This Trinitarian formula reflects the equality of the Trinitarian persons. Christ presents all three persons having one name, as a unified and equal, singular whole, and uses this singular name of the three for holy baptism.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

June 12, 2022
Trinity Sunday

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..." (John 16:13)

It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear His response.

ARCHDIOCESE OF Regina TF299: Saints and Mental Health: St. Raphael, Remedy of God

Our monthly series on the Saints and Mental health continues as Deacon Eric Gurash reflects on Archangel, St. Raphael, and his role not just as a healer of physical ailments, but as a powerful intercessor and companion in times of serious grief and emotional distress.

Show Snippet: "The story of Tobit and his family reminds us that these answered prayers often come in surprising, disguised ways. A coworker or friend, a bit of scripture or song heard at a time of great need, or, as with Raphael, a lonely traveler, a stranger...all may be secret encounters with the divine reaching out to give answer to the deep need of our hearts."
